The Foreclosure Sale will be made expressly subject to any title matters set forth in the Second Lien Deed of Trust, but prospective bidders are reminded that the Foreclosure Sale will necessarily be made subject to all prior matters of records affecting the Property, if any, to the extent that they remain in force and effect and have not been subordinated to the Second Lien Deed of Trust. For the avoidance of doubt, the Foreclosure Sale will not cover any part of the Property that has been released of public record from the lien created in favor of the Beneficiary under the Second Lien Deed of Trust. Prospective bidders are strongly urged to examine the applicable property records to determine the nature and extent of such matters, if any.

The Property will be sold "AS IS", without any expressed or implied warranties, except as to the warranties, if any, provided for under the Second Lien Deed of Trust. The Trustee or Substitute Trustee, as the case may be, reserves that right to set further reasonable conditions for conducting the Foreclosure Sale, which will be announced prior to any bidding at the Foreclosure Sale. Prospective bidders are advised to conduct an independent investigation of the nature and physical condition of the Property.
